ROWLAND HEIGHTS—A woman from Diamond Bar won the Grand Prize in 99 Ranch Market's 2008 Raffle Giveaways held two weeks ago in this city. It was announced by Jennifer Tsao, the supermarket chain's Yuli Lan, an employee of a postal station in the city of Chino, was the happy winner of a 2008 Lexus Hybrid SUV. She had one entry out of the more than 50,000 entries received in several 99 ranch Market stores in Southern California.

"I am so happy," said Ms. Lan. "I am surprised." Her husband, Chris, a financial and accounting professional, said "I'm so excited. "This is incredible; she's so lucky because we've never won anything in the past."

"My wife will drive the Lexus; it's her car," Chris said. The Lans have a son and a daughter. Together, the whole family got in the car, while Ms. Lan turned on the ignition of the hybrid car.

The Lans are originally from Taipei, Taiwan. The couple immigrated to the United States 22 years ago and lived in San Diego nine years, then moved to Diamond Bar in 1997.

Ms. Tsao said that management of the 99 ranch Market chain is very happy with the raffle and the number of entries it received this year. "We will continue giving away prizes like this in the future," Ms. Tsao said.
