Martin Nievera in a Holiday concert at Morongo Casino

THIS early, the Filipinos are all on the lookout as to how they can spend their Holidays with much musical fanfare. A must-see concert that is sure to send Holiday cheers to music enthusiasts is the upcoming concert of Martin Nievera on Dec. 21, Sunday, 6 pm at Morongo Casino Resort and Spa.

The show aptly titled Martin Nievera in My Christmas List also includes the special guest appearance of top R&B artist Brian McKnight. The latter is also a disc jockey and his popular voice is heard every morning over The Wave FM. McKnight is also a staple in the Philippine music scene and has graced the concert stages back home where he is a huge favorite.

Musical director of the show is Lorrie Ilustre who has worked in collaboration with Martin on the repertoire that is sure to take everyone in a joyous mood. The nine-piece band is complete with horns, percussions and string section.

Martin Nievera in Morongo Casino is executive-produced by Jackie Regala and Gerry Katigbak of KATZ Entertainment and Cliff Villalor of Genesis Productions. It is also presented by Morongo Casino Resort & Spa, Western Union and Seafood City Supermarket. For ticket reservation and sponsorships, you may call KATZ at (562) 219-7235, (562) 787-9030, or Genesis at (626) 272-2754.

When asked what makes him the happiest this Christmas, Martin quipped: "When Ram and Robin said that they want to spend Christmas with me and their brother, Santino—I am one happy father. This makes my Christmas this year very special. I love all my children and there's nothing more joyful than seeing them all together especially during this season."

Meanwhile, Martin is experiencing an early Christmas bonus as his Christmas album titled My

Christmas List has been raking in brisk sales and great reviews from music critics. Here's one from writer Baby Gil, which she titled: Random thoughts on Martin's Christmas List It took a long time coming, I mean Martin Nievera's second Christmas album. He did his first Continued on PAGE B5
