Delicious Filipino Favorites at Grill City Ihaw-Ihaw

Shopping at Seafood City MarketPlace in North Hills has become even better with the recent opening of a new fast-food restaurant offering delicious grilled specialties.

The restaurant, Grill City, is one of the many dining choices available at the food court of the MarketPlace.

Since it opened a month ago, Grill City has been attracting customers looking for tasty and healthy meal options.

The restaurant offers a tempting variety of "Ihaw-Ihaw" or Filipino favorites served hot off the grill!

HOT OFF THE GRILL

Its signature Seafood Meals such as the Inihaw na Pusit (Grilled Squid), Salmon, Tilapia Fillet and Boneless Bangus (Milkfish) have been drawing raves from customers.

Grilled Meat dishes include Chicken or Pork Barbecue, Beef Shortrib, Porkchop and more!

The restaurant also has an all-day breakfast line-up consisting of classics such as Longanisa, Tocino and Beef Tapa.

"Grill City has become my new favorite place to hang out since it opened several weeks ago because of the Grilled Breakfast items. It just reminds me of the breakfast my lola (grandmother) used to make at home on weekends," said Melissa, a UCLA freshman.

MEAL DEALS

Recent menu introductions include the $3.99 Breakfast Meal Deals available everyday from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m., the Seafood Specials, as well as the Fresh Lumpiang Ubod (Heart of Palm Eggroll) and the Ensaladang Talong (Grilled Eggplant Salad).

"I really love the Inihaw na Pusit (Grilled Squid)," another customer said, further adding, "this is definitely better than the offerings at many turo-turo restaurants. The food is good... and better yet, it's affordable!"

So the next time

you're in the neighborhood, be sure to check out Grill City for home-style meals served right off the grill!

ONE-STOP SHOP

Meanwhile, other developments at Seafood City in North Hills include the opening of some of most popular names in Philippine food and services.

The newest additions are Goldilocks and Chowking, as well as PNB (Philippine National Bank).

This simply reinforces Seafood City's position as a one-stop shopping and dining destination that caters to the Filipino lifestyle.

Now you can shop for your groceries at Seafood City, enjoy a meal or snack at Goldilocks, Chowking or Grill City, and even send money to your loved ones back in the Philippines all in one place - at Seafood City in North Hills!

Seafood City North Hills is located at 16130 Nordhoff St. North Hills, CA 91343, easily accessible via the Nordhoff Exit off the 405 freeway.
