 "Buti na lamang dahil sa vision at determination ng ating Pangulo, we are not as badly affected as the rest of the world," Remonde said.
 Besides, he said, under President Arroyo the Philippines diversified its export market and now "medyo iyong percentage ating international trade with the US has already gone down a bit compared to the previous years. So, we have become less dependent on the US for trade though the US remains our major trading partner and a world political and economic leader."

 Remonde repeated that President Arroyo has her plate full, attending to her economic programs, creating jobs and addressing poverty and hunger rather than political issues like charter change.

"As I have already pointed out, si Pangulong Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo ay wala ng panahon diyang sa mga pulitikang usapin. Dahil siya po ay nakatutok po sa ating ekonomiya at sa paglikha ng trabaho," Remonde stressed anew.

"By continuing investment in hunger mitigation programs, the President seemed to have succeeded in this area as borne by the Social Weather Station's February survey, showing hunger incidence dipping to only 15.5 percent," Remonde said.

"Ang sinabi nga ng Pangulo sa kanyang talumpati kahapon na patuloy ang investment ng ating gobyerno sa mga food for work programs, food for school programs, livelihood programs at ipagpatuloy at i-expand po ang pakikipagtulungan ng ating gobyerno sa simbahan at iba pang mga faith-based organizations na magkakaroon ng mga joint projects like feeding programs and livelihood programs po diyan."

Finally, he said that the Department of Public Works and Highways is now rushing its construction of a major road project that will link Surigao with Davao. This biggest road project for Mindanao was discussed in the Cabinet meeting in Misamis Oriental where the President tasked DPWH to work 24/7 to ensure its completion.

He added that the President will inaugurate today the P218 million provincial government complex in Maguindanao which will house the provincial Capitol, sports and social centers and other government offices. Of the P215 million, P25 million came from the President's Social Fund. She will lead the ribbon cutting to be assisted by ARMM Regional Governor Datu Zaldy Ampatuan, the Maguindanao Governor, and Cabinet Officer for Regional Development of ARMM, Department of Agrarian Reform Secretary Nasser Pangandaman, and other top local officials.
