 up singers and terrific dance numbers like a Las Vegas show. The concert's going to be a real treat and parts of the proceeds will go to Bantay Bata," Eddie added.
 Aside from practicing for his grand concert, Edsel is also busy recording songs every week for his album which will come out in time for the affair. "I'm so excited about my concert because it's the first time that I will perform solo. I want to use the talents that God gave me and excel in music," Edsel said.
 Before and after every performance, Eddie and Edsel never forget to pray. "We ask the Lord to guide us. God gave Edsel the talent and it's up to Him to use it in the way He wants to. I always tell Edsel, 'it's not about you. God can take away your talents in just a second so never be proud.' That's why, Edsel always asks the Holy Spirit to help him perform. It's important to be humble, always," said Eddie.
 With his amazing talents and such golden words to guide him, the golden boy will surely go a long, long way to fame and fortune. And his grand concert on July 18 is expected to be the grand moment to firmly establish Edsel Sotiangco in the performing arts industry. ■
