FROM ALLURE COSMETIC SOLUTIONS

The Best Skin Care Products for the Most Desirable Results

DEDICATED to helping men and women look better and younger, Allure Cosmetic Solutions in West Covina has been improving the looks of their clients with the latest medical technology and using only the best and most innovative skin care products.

One superior line of products that Allure uses under the expertise of Dr. Brian Machida is SkinCeuticals, considered as the "gold standard" today. SkinCeuticals has been extensively featured in the media, such as People Magazine, Women's Health, Vogue, Bazaar, Elle, Shape, Redbook, Men's Journal, in Oprah, Fox News and E News.

SkinCeuticals Phloretin CF has been referred to as "the best" in Allure Magazine, and "truly the gold standard" in Fox News and Good Morning America. Another product, the SkinCeutical Ultimate UV Defender has been reported by E News as "the best money can buy".

SkinCeuticals Phloretin CF delivers unprecedented protection against photo-aging, neutralizing free radicals, building collagen, and provides unmatched antioxidant protection. When applied underneath sunscreens, the SkinCeuticals Phloretin CF serum provides approximately eight times the skin's naturally-endowed level of protection against prematurely aging environmental factors. It ensures the highest level of reliable protection currently available and delivers an ideal dose of ascorbic acid (the skin's most fundamental requirement for firmness) to the dermis, where deeper wrinkles are formed.

Using unmatched skin care products like SkinCeuticals is one evidence that Allure Cosmetic Solutions seeks to deliver its mission to provide innovative aesthetic solutions and quality products backed by science.

But using superior products alone does not guarantee the most desirable results. The expertise and guidance of the doctor or skin care practitioner is most important as well. No wonder, more people go to Allure Cosmetic Solutions because they know Dr. Brian Machida is one of the best in his field. Voted one of America's Top Physicians in 2005 by the Consumer Research Council of America Board Certifications, Dr. Machida is also the recipient of the AMA Physician's Recognition Award for Continuing Education, the John Orlando Roe Award for Clinical Research in Facial Plastic Surgery and the Outstanding Young Men Award in America. An associate clinical professor at the USC School of Medicine, Dr. Machida graduated summa cum laude with a BS Degree at the UC Berkeley and earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of Southern California. As a licensed aesthetic physician and surgeon, Dr. Machida aims to provide the utmost fulfillment and satisfaction to people who need beauty enhancements.
