Right-handed pitcher Bobby Chouinard is the only MLB player born in the Philippines. The reliever was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 5th round of the 1990 MLB amateur draft and made his Major League debut with the Oakland Athletics on May 26, 1996. While Chouinard is the only player born in the Philippines, three other players of Filipino heritage have played in the Major Leagues: Bobby Balceña (1956 Cincinnati Reds), Benny Agbayani (1998-2001 New York Mets, 2002 Colorado Rockies, 2002 Boston Red Sox), and Chris Aguila (2004-2006 Florida Marlins, 2008 New York Mets). Two other Pacific Islanders have played in the Major Leagues: John Hatting from Guam (2006 Toronto Blue Jays) and Tom Mastny from Indonesia (2006-2008 Cleveland Indians).

The Dodgers will provide Free Parking in the general lots at Dodger Stadium for the three-game series June 16-18 versus the Oakland Athletics. Gates open at 5:10pm and game times are 7:10pm. Fans will be able to enter all Dodger Stadium gates, where the $15 parking fee will be waived for entrance into the general lots.

The National League West Division Champion Los Angeles Dodgers, pioneers in sport and world culture, have won more games, more pennants, and more World Series than any other club in the National League since moving to Los Angeles. Since the start of the modern era in baseball, the Dodgers of Brooklyn and Los Angeles, combined, have a cumulative attendance of more than 181 million, the highest total in the history of baseball or any other sport.

The best recipes from the women of Northern Mindanao

FROM simple matters of coping with household expenses to selfless advocacies, the woman of today is not only confined to their traditional duties but are movers of the Philippine food industry in their own little way.

The women of Region 10 (Northern Mindanao) contribute to the society not just by molding their children to become better individuals but also in sharing the flavorful concoctions that mothers know best.

Three food ventures in Cagayan de Oro proved that women are also players in the field of business as they displayed their entrepreneurial prowess and their tasty offerings on the 6th edition of the International Food Exhibition (IFEX) Philippines 2009.

Catalino Women's Association, Sun-Q Technical Trading and Flor's All Time Favorite Pasalubong Products; all legitimate home-grown companies in northern Mindanao are run by women who strive to make a difference. These food companies along with other premium food companies from Northern Mindanao are part of the Partner Region Program, a project of the
