

Premiere College: Success within your reach

Be part of the next batch of thriving professionals

DO YOU want to take on a career but somehow you still feel lost? Life in the working world is a not a walk in the park. The economy is unstable; this affects everyone's career decisions. Every choice that will be made should be taken from ample and practical considerations.

There are no clear rules so to speak. But there are ways you can follow to increase your chances of career success. Of course to jumpstart a great opportunity in achieving success in one's career is to have a quality education to begin with.

Education is key to success; Premiere Career College makes way for success.

Last June 5, Premiere Career College presented its newly graduates of Vocational Nursing at the Baldwin Park, California. The list of successful graduates include Anabel Amante, Sandra Armas, Debbie Bonifacio, Edselle Castorillo, Richelle Castro, Neil Oliver Dajero, Norma Felix, Johnathan Garcia, Cristin Gonzales, Jessemita Jimenez, Lorraine Lim, Gabriela Martinez, Zhezka Mendiola, MissyAnn Pham, Ashley Ramos, Baby Clarence Santiago, Lea Santiago, Ashley Solorio, and Anadelle Tocong. All of them have remarkably achieved the requirements of their respective program.

The significant event was formally started by the entrance of the honorees and the Premiere Career College faculty. It was then followed by the heartwarming invocation led by Zenaida Plata.

Johnathan Garcia and Lorraine Lim initiated the entrance of the flags, which was punctually succeeded by the singing of the national anthem, the Premiere Career College hymn and the graduates' Pledge of Allegiance.

The event was highlighted by the Keynote Address presented by Sheryle Williams, RN, the Director of Nursing for El Encanto Healthcare and Habilitation Center.

Ever since its foundation in 1991, Premier Career College has established itself as a respectable educational institution. It has helped students achieve not only quality education but discover their career paths that ensured a clear picture of what their future might bring them.

Premiere Career College offers specialized training in vocational programs such as nursing, surgical technology, medical assisting, records processing and many others. These programs are intended to help students win the job search competition after they graduate.

Don't bury your head in the sand and hope all of the potential threats to your career ahead will just disappear. Be prepared; keep your ears tuned into your prospective work grapevine; observe the industry you want to pursue. Now is the time to take steps to a recession-proof job. Start now and not later, enroll at Premiere Career College.
