

Seafood City MarketPlace Concord opens Nov. 4

Seafood City Marketplace Concord officially opens this Thursday. The new retail complex is unique in that it offers a very extensive mix of shops – from the leading Pinoy supermarket chain, your Filipino food favorites, money remittance & cargo forwarding, and even professional services. All these make the MarketPlace, located along Diamond Boulevard in Concord, a one-stop shopping destination catering to the Fil-Am lifestyle, as well as a showcase of the best that the Filipino has to offer.

The opening of the full retail complex shall be in stages, starting with Seafood City Supermarket. The other shops in the complex are expected to follow within the next few weeks.

Seafood City Supermarket is complemented by popular Filipino food, drug and service brands such as Jollibee, Chowking, Red Ribbon Bake shop, Valerio's Tropical Bakeshop, Tokyo Tokyo, Tony's Barbecue and Bibingkinitan, PNB Remittance, Monet's Salon, Pharmacy (drugstore), Atlas Shippers International and LBC.

Top-rate services such as dental, optical, legal/paralegal, accounting/tax preparation, and a beauty salon shall also be part of the Market Place, completing the overall tenant mix and making the mall truly a one-stop shopping destination that caters to the Fil-Am lifestyle.

Expect all these and more at Seafood City Marketplace -- cultural performances, celebrity appearances, community gatherings, fun and surprises galore!

Seafood City Supermarket
At the heart of the Marketplace is Seafood City Supermarket, the premiere Filipino full-service supermarket chain in the United States.

The supermarket, in the words of its loyal customers, At Home Ako Sa'yo, is designed to evoke a feeling of home with the use of modern-Filipino accents, a warm color scheme, as well as murals that reflect Filipino culture and traditions.

At the supermarket are rows and rows of familiar products and brands such as rice cakes, dried sea-herring, Filipino sausages – to name a few.

Indeed, one finds a vast array of Filipino and Oriental grocery items, plus the American products commonly found in Filipino homes.

Walk-around fish display tables provide the added feel of being in a wet market or talipapa setting. Seafood City Supermarket also offers the freshest produce, USDA-approved meat and the widest range of seafood at everyday low prices.

Shoppers are sure to feel the convenience and ease of shopping at Seafood City, with its wide, spacious aisles, state-of-the-art check out system and ample parking space.

The supermarket also maintains one of strictest standards of sanitation, health and safety in the industry.

Its operating standards are in a class of its own, presenting it as a model for other Filipino and Oriental stores.

Hot To Go Section

A unique innovation coming up at the supermarket in Concord is the Hot To Go prepared food / deli section. The Hot To Go is the perfect alternative to cooking at home.

It offers a wide selection of Pinoy food favorites such as Pork & Chicken Barbecue, Rotisserie Chicken, Crispy Pata, Grilled Pusit, Daing na Bangus and more – all freshly-cooked, convenient and ready to go!

Osang finds a new...

40-year-old beau. She merely says his initials are R.B. He works for the government and is a native of Malolos, Bulacan. The two met through a common friend who had set a blind date for them in July last year.

"We didn't meet on our first date because I had a shooting so it had been reset and we instantly clicked," she offers.

The relationship, she adds, has taken out the "bad girl" in her and turned her as meek as a lamb whenever her boyfriend raises a point. Thus, her son Onyok often teases her that she has become tameme.

"He made me want to be a better woman. He's a Christian. It's not about religion pero s'yempre dapat ka-lengguahe mo. He has already met my pastor brother and my mom," Osang shares. "At least ngayon may magtatanggol na sa amin."

What does she love most about lawyer R.B.?

"He loves his mother so much. Yun kasi ang basehan ko sa pagpili ng lalaki 'pag mahal na mahal nito ang nanay n'ya maha-halin din ako ng todo at maiintindihan nya din ang pagka-nanay ko," she replies.

Hopefully, the court grants its decision before her birthday in May next year. It excites her to start a family anew even if her children frown on her having another baby.

"I'm planning to sell the house. S'yempre dun kami nagsama ni Tito. He (lawyer) wouldn't like that, bibili s'ya ng iba," Osang states.

In Wanted: Border, Osang as Mama Selang doesn't mind staying in an old house, warmly welcoming boarders who instead of finding a peaceful and restful place, often encounter strange happenings during the night.

Directed by Ray Gibraltar, the horror-drama will be shown at the Gateway Mall Cinema from Nov. 13 to 17. Other entries include Maximus and Minimus, Paano Ko Sasabihin, Bala-Bala and Si Bining, Si Maymay at Ang Asong Si Bobo. The digital film-fest is part of Cinema One's celebration in its 15th year in local cinema. Selected films of Danny Zialcita and Brillante Mendoza will also be shown. Awards night will be held on Nov. 15 at ABS-CBN's Dolphy Theater. ■
