CSN Culinary Team Takes Silver Medal at American Culinary Federation Competition

LAS VEGAS, April 15, 2009 — Students from the College of Southern Nevada culinary arts program competed at the 2009 Western Regional Competition this month against seven other Western teams and won third overall and a high point silver medal. This is the 12th consecutive year that CSN has represented the state of Nevada in this competition, which took place in Seattle April 4-6.

The students, members of the CSN Hot Food Team, were required to show proficiency in three areas including, skills salon, cold food presentation and hot food signature menu competition. Please see attached menu and photos of the team.

"On behalf of the CSN Culinary Arts Program, I am proud to recognize the achievements of these students," said Chef Levy C. Acosta, Jr., a CSN hospitality management professor and team coach. "Many hours of work with a desire to succeed and a willingness to listen to constructive criticism have allowed them to develop their skills to a professional level."

The CSN Hot Food Team includes CSN students: Samantha Lew, TeJay Joaquin, Wengka Wu, Michael Gabriel, Tony Tsai, Ron Manuson, Nayeli Espinosa and Juan Gamboa.

About CSN:

Founded in 1971 and educating thousands of students a semester, the College of Southern Nevada (www.csn.edu) is the state's largest and most ethnically diverse higher education institution. CSN offers more than 200 degree and certificate options in more than 130 areas of study, including 25 degree and certificate programs available entirely online. Students create flexible, personalized schedules including day, evening and weekend classes taught on three main campuses and multiple locations throughout Southern Nevada. CSN -- Your future starts here. ■
