About the Workshop

The AICPA Accounting Scholars Leadership Workshop is an annual invitational program for minority accounting students who plan to pursue the CPA designation. This event aims to strengthen students' professional skills and understanding of the limitless possibilities and benefits of earning the CPA credential. Through speakers, panel discussions and interactive programs, participants gain confidence and an enhanced understanding of the various career paths with the accounting profession to prepare them for the steps that follow graduation. This is a fantastic opportunity for students to learn about the CPA profession and increase their professional skills. The attendance is limited to 100 students and accounting professionals in academia, public, business and industry and the each participant must meet the following eligibility requirements:

Declared accounting or tax major who intends to pursue the CPA credential

Junior, Senior, 5th Year, or Graduate student for the 2009-2010 academic year

Maintained a 3.0 GPA or higher

Actively involved in campus and/or community activities

An ethnic minority (Black or African American; Hispanic or Latino; Native American; or Asian)

Must be US citizen or permanent resident (Green card holder)

This is an all-expenses paid event, the AICPA covers the cost of student attendees' transportation, hotel accommodation and meals.
