Skin and Body Care. The IWE, an economic development program of the Rancho Santiago Community College District Foundation, holds the distinction of being the first and only women's business center in Orange County funded in part through a grant from the US Small Business Administration (SBA). The mission of IWE is to empower women entrepreneurs in all stages of business development through technical assistance, business counseling, mentoring, access to resources and networking. IWE broadens the reach of business training and consulting to help women start, grow and expand their small businesses. The IWE supports local businesses through one-on-one business consulting services, key business workshops geared to the needs of women entrepreneurs and network-building opportunities. While welcoming men to its programs, the IWE caters to the needs of women entrepreneurs.

This summit was made possible through the generous support of sponsors including: Aetna, California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce/Latina Development Council, Center of Excellence, Chevron, Citibank, Comerica Bank, Orange County One-Stop Center, Orange County Workforce Investment Board, Todos, and VisualRS Designs. Akaka reintroduces Filipino veterans...

PAGE A1 ◀ languish on the visa waiting lists, to join them, officials in the senator's office said.

The legislation exempts the veterans' children, about 20,000 individual in all, from the numerical limitation on immigrant visas.

Edward M. Kennedy (d-ma), and Maria Cantwell (d-wa) are among the cosponsors of the bill.

Last year, Filipino WWII veterans received much-awaited benefits when the American recovery and reinvestment act (arra) of 2009 included a provision that authorized the payment of benefits to the 30,000 surviving Filipino veterans in the amount of $15,000 for those who are citizens and $9,000 for those who are non-citizens.
